

ISO 45001 Certification

A standard at the service of managing operating risks !

Certification of your Occupational Health and Safety Management System according to the ISO standard is recognition of your involvement and of the results obtained for your employees and your partners.

The benefits

- Reduction in the number of occupational accidents
- Reduction in direct and indirect costs
- Increase in productivity and performance
- Setting up of global and structured management of risks
- Demonstration of your commitment to improve the health and safety of your employees
- Improvement in your image with your partners, principals and customers

The procedures

ISO 45001 certification is a voluntary approach. To apply for certification in the best conditions, it is desirable :

- that your Occupational Health and Safety Management System has been operational for 6 months,
- that it has undergone an internal audit at least once,
- that a management review has been conducted.

It is intended for bodies of all types and sizes, regardless of the geographical, cultural and social conditions.

Validity of the Certificate

3 years, with annual follow-up audit.

Combined certifications

Standard ISO 45001 for an Occupational Health and Safety Management System can be used independently or integrated into any other management system. Its structure is similar to those of ISO 9001 and of ISO 14001.

ISO 45001 certification can be combined with other certifications (ISO 9001, ISO 14001, ISO 50001) and the audits can be coordinated.

The certification process

1	Certification Request
2	Planning
3	Initial audit
4	Certification decision
5	Issuing of the Certificate
6	Annual follow-up audit
